

Community Grant Writer

Krista Etty has been hired by the Village of Valemount as the Community Grant Writer. This position is funded by Northern Development Initiatives Trust and the Valemount Community Forests.

The Community Grant Writer will assist the community and non-profit agencies access funding dollars to support crucial economic development projects and initiatives by:

- Educating groups regarding proper documentation required for grants;
- Meeting with local groups to discuss their needs and research applicable grants;
- Keeping up to date on current grants and informing groups if compatible;
- Applying for grants on behalf of the groups and the Village of Valemount.
