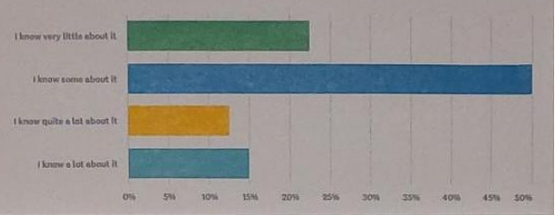
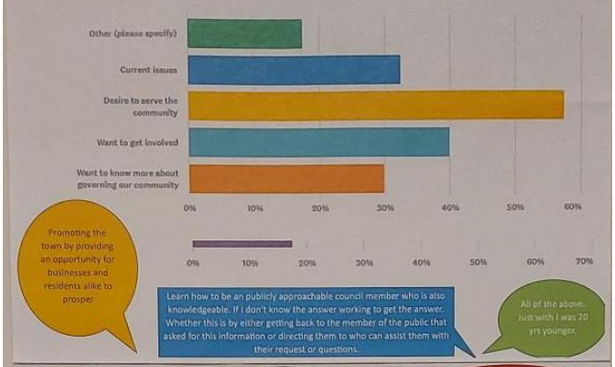
40 citizens of Valemount filled out a survey on running for Council. This is what they had to say.

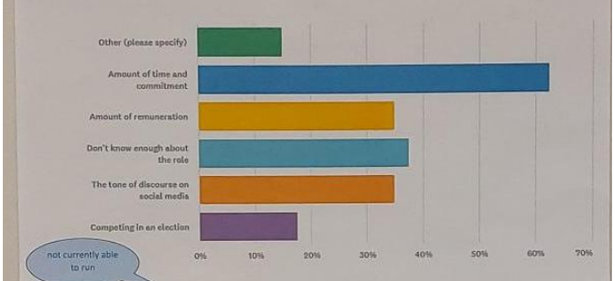
How much do you know about the role of a local elected official?



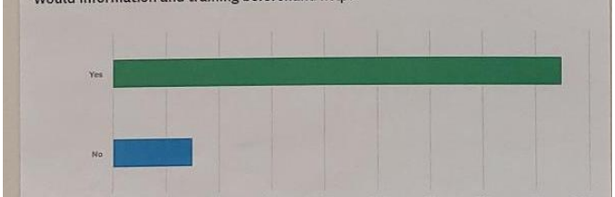
What factors might make you inclined to run for local public office?

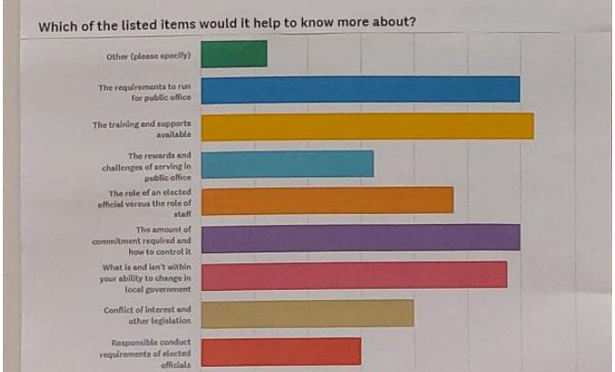


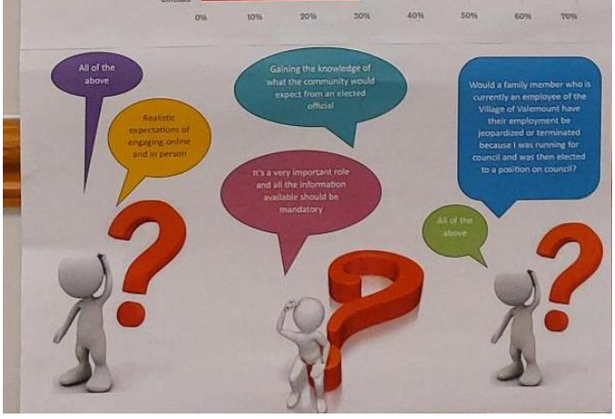
What factors might make you hesitate to run for local public office?



Would information and training beforehand help?







Which of the listed items would it help to know more about?